Una scuola grande come il mondo

A School as Big as the World

illustrated by Allegra Agliardi, 32 pages, age 5+

Gianni Rodari talks about a school as big as the world itself. The teachers are professors but also carpenters, even the sun and the stars do teach something in that school. Some lessons are easy, some are difficult. You can learn how to speak, but also how to play and even how to get angry. You never stop learning, and what you do not know yet, is always much more important than what you already know. This school is the entire world: you just have to look around yourself and you will get full marks!

Rights sold: Portuguese (Brazil only), Castilian, Catalan, Turkish.

Il cielo è di tutti - The Sky Belongs to Everyone

illustrated by Nicoletta Costa, 32 pages, age 4+

In this wonderful book, Nicoletta Costa, one of Italy's best-loved illustrators, brings all her skill and bright, joyful, easy-to-read style to a splendid nursery rhyme from Gianni Rodari's "Book of Errors". In his customary, concise and simple style, Rodari asks a question that humanity has still not found an answer to: "Why is there only one sky when the earth is broken into lots of pieces?"

Rights sold: Castilian.

La principessa Allegra - Princess Allegra

illustrated by Elena Temporin, 32 pages, age 5+

Allegra is a princess who always sees the bright side of life. She even keeps smiling when her parents pass away and she is made queen, a job that turns out to be exceedingly dull and dreary! While her people adore her, the court is plotting as usual and eventually Allegra is deposed and the kingdom plunged into rack and ruin. When her faithful subjects return her crown, it is time for Allegra to marry. But she agrees to wed only the man who can ask for her hand without making her laugh. Everyone fails, except for one poor peasant who looks at her from a distance without laughing. He has been to war so he knows the meaning of pain and he is ready to share that knowledge with Allegra in a new life based on compassion, serenity and awareness.

L'omino dei sogni - The Little Man of Dreams

illustrated by Anna Laura Cantone, 32 pages, age 5+

For Gianni Rodari, the little man of dreams is a little prompter: while we sleep he whispers a few words to our ears, and we are immediately transported to fantastic worlds. In this lively story, images from different dreams follow one after the other, unexpectedly slipping into each other, following the words whispered by the little man. Who is then this little character whose words bring us to fantastic worlds where anything is possible? The rhyme does not say that, but in some way it seems to be... Rodari himself!

Rights sold: Portuguese (Brazil only).

Il Filobus numero 75 - The Bus number 75

illustrated by Blanca Gómez, 32 pages, age 5+

Bus number 75 runs every day on its usual route through Rome, but one morning, suddenly, takes its passengers out of the city to the edge of a forest. Passengers are supposed to go to work, so they start protesting against the driver. Slowly, however, the passengers get off and enjoy the beauty of the wood. Now that all are having fun, the bus is ready to leave and magically not even a minute has passed: every passenger can be at work on time! It is the first day of spring, everything is possible!

Rights sold: Portuguese (Brazil only), French, Simple Chinese, Chinese Complex.

Il trionfo dello zero - The Triumph of the Zero

illustrated by Elena Del Vento, 32 pages, age 5+

This picture book, inspired by a poem by Gianni Rodari, represents yet another invitation from the author to look at things in a different way. It tells the poetic story of a Zero that alone is worthless, but when put next to a One can become a no less than a Ten! ”.

Rights sold: Chinese Simple, Portuguese (Brazil only), Dutch.

I colori dei mestieri - The Colours of Trades

illustrated by Alessandro Sanna, 72 pages, age 6+

Rodari describes – together with the unmistakable, poetical drawing by Alessandro Sanna – the real appearance of those who work, who, every day, do their part in making things work, so that everyone can enjoy a common good, since even the humblest of trades has its own dignity.

Rights sold: Simple Chinese, Chinese Complex.

Alice Cascherina - Tumbling Alice

illustrated by Elena Temporin, 32 pages, age 4+

The first of the eight Alice stories from Telephone Tales.

In her eagerness to go poking about everywhere, little Tumbling Alice tumbles over in the most unthinkable places. She tumbles into the alarm clock, into the bottle and into the back of drawers. She even tumbles into her daddy's jacket pocket. Luckily she always manages to escape!

Rights sold: Simple Chinese, Chinese Complex, Castilian, Portuguese (Brazil only).

Giacomo di cristallo - Christal James illustrated by Vitali Konstaninov, 32 pages, age 5+

The unforgettable story of the see-through boy, whose thoughts and innermost emotions are even on view for everyone to see. A terrible tyrant imprisons him because of his transparency. But “the truth is more powerful than any other thing, it is brighter than daylight, and more dreadful than a hurricane”.

Illustrated by Vitali Konstaninov, selected at the Illustrators Exhibition at the Bologna Children's Bookfair in 2010.

Rights sold: Castilian, Simple Chinese, Chinese Complex.

La strada che non andava in nessun posto - The Road that Went Nowhere

illustrated by Fulvio Testa, 32 pages, age 6+

There were three paths leading out of the village, the one to the seaside, the one to the city and the one that led to nowhere. In spite of all the bans, one day Martin Hardhead decided to follow that path right to the end, and it led to a fabulous castle. Here he was welcomed by a marvellous lady who congratulated him for not believing the fib about the path leading nowhere, and she gave him boundless treasures to take back to the village. That very same evening, many of the villagers rushed along the same path, but at the end of it all they found was a sea of thorns, because “some treasures only exist for those who beat a new road first.”

Rights sold: Castilian, Chinese Simple, Portuguese (Brazil only).

Storie di Natale - Christmas Tales ill. by Alistar and A. Ruta, 88 and 160 pages, age 6+

A genuine wizard of words, Gianni Rodari could turn any occasion into poetry. And so readers young and old will find this anthology dedicated to the Christmas festivities marked by the extraordinary signature imagination of "Wizard Gianni": greetings for everyone, red Indians in the nativity scene, sparrows nesting on the Christmas tree, surprisingly jaunty snowmen and trains bringing us wagon loads of toys at New Year's Eve.

Rights sold: Russian, Bulgarian, Rumanian, Greek.

Storia universale - Universal History

illustrated by Bombo!, 32 pages, age 4+

Telling the story of the world and man's role on Earth in less than one hundred and fifty words. With simplicity, conveying emotions and, above all, using language suitable for children. Sounds like a mission impossible? Not for Gianni Rodari, who managed it with this text, the closing text in Tales on the Phone. Here, as in all Gianni Rodari's works, there is wit and, above all, that "universal" and impartial point of view that makes his message up-to-date and applicable to all mankind.

Rights sold: Portuguese (Brazil only).

Tonino l'invisibile - Tonino the Invisible

illustrated by Alessandro Sanna, 40 pages, age 7+

One of Gianni Rodari's most famous stories. Alessandro Sanna has managed an extraordinary feat – creating the illustrations of an invisible character!

Tonino satisfies his greatest wish and becomes invisible. But now that nobody can see him, how can he take part in the laughter of his friends or his mother's hugs? Being alone is terrible!

Rights sold: Castilian (Spain and South America), Korean, Portuguese (Brazil only), Turkish, Chinese Simple, Armenian.

La filastrocca di Pinocchio - The Story of Pinocchio

illustrated by Febe Sillani, 40 pages, age 6+

Published for the first time in the fifties and constructed through commented drawings and rhyming couplets, this nursery rhyme is a homage by Rodari to one of the characters best loved by children all over the world. True to the novel but capable of winning over modern children, accustomed to picture stories, for decades it has always won its bet: bringing small readers to love Collodi's masterpiece. A small treasure for people who love Pinocchio. Brought up-to-date and enriched by new illustrations.

Lo zoo delle storie - The Zoo of Stories

illustrated by Fulvio Testa, 48 pages, age 7+

With these stories Rodari has fun constructing a chain of tales and, of course, the final story is skilfully linked to the first one. And each story stands alone, independent from the others, in a simple yet ingenious narrative construction. The protagonists are almost all animals at a zoo where freedom and imagination are the rule, the same freedom and imagination with which only children see the world. A masterly interpretation by Fulvio Testa, whose drawings show the happy spaces of this zoo made up of stories, animals and imagination.

Rights sold: Portuguese (Brazil only).

I viaggi di Giovannino Perdigiorno - Giovannino Perdigiorno's Travels

illustrated by Valeria Petrone, 40 pages, age 5+

Giovannino Perdigiorno is a child traveller who, on board the weirdest vehicles, ends up in some really outlandish countries: in one he finds men made of butter, in another the men are see-through and so on. Valeria Petrone interprets Gianni Rodari's famous character with a liberating freshness, offering readers a whiff of the fragrance of utopia.

Rights sold: Simple Chinese, Chinese Complex.

Animali senza zoo - Animals not in the Zoo

illustrated by Anna Laura Cantone, 48 pages, age 6+

Anna Laura Cantone does a magnificent job illustrating short stories about animals by Gianni Rodari. Rodari takes up the ancient tradition of the fable, at times placing the animal-protagonists in classical situations, at times endowing them with virtues and vices of the modern world. With her unmistakable flair, Anna Laura Cantone creates an irresistible saraband of humour.

Rights sold: Rumanian, Portuguese (only Portugal), Bulgarian.

illustrated by Anna Laura Cantone, 32 pages, age 5+

Alice is a funny character created by Gianni Rodari, and she always falls into things: alarm clocks, pockets, soap bubbles... How does she do that? And how is it possible to pull her out? It's always a tricky problem. This time she falls into an illustrated fairytale book: it's going to be a lot of fun!

Rights sold: Portuguese (Brazil and Portugal), Simple Chinese, Chinese Complex.

La passeggiata di un distratto - The Walk of an Absent-Minded

illustrated by Alistar, 32 pages, age 5+

In one of the best-known Tales on the Phone, Gianni Rodari has fun portraying a typical characteristic of childhood: absentmindedness. Little Giovanni is an absent-minded: he goes out for a walk and he loses bits of his body, because he is busy following his train of thought. It is typical of children, of all children, who think only about themselves, who live only in the present, in the moment that disappears immediately to make way for another moment, another idea, another adventure. But for every absent-minded child there is a mummy who loves him just the way he is and is always ready to put back the pieces he has lost along the way.

Rights sold: Castilian.

Che cosa ci vuole - What do you need?

illustrated by Silvia Bonanni, 32 pages, age 4+

A priceless illustrated book, where Gianni Rodari's very simple text is greatly enhanced by the splendid images in collage. The text, which is as elegantly dry as a geometrical demonstration, explains how there cannot be tables without wood, and therefore, by going back one step at a time, "to make a table you need a flower." There is sometimes a short step between the elegance of geometry to the fragrance of poetry.

Rights sold: Korean, Portuguese (Portugal and Brazil), Greek, Simple Chinese, Chinese Complex.

A sbagliare le storie - When Stories are mistold

illustrated by Alessandro Sanna, 40 pages, age 5+

Just take this superb large-sized edition of A sbagliare le storie in which the tale of Little Red Riding Hood is warped, twisted and twirled around by a grandfather who seems quite unable to tell it right. Provided of course that he wants to... Colours, quotations and an original graphic interpretation of Rodari's poetical theory of error humorously blend in the lush collages which capture the energy and wit of each and every turn of the story in a stunning crescendo leading up to the surprise ending.

Rights sold: Castilian, Catalan, Galician, Basque, Portuguese (Brazil and Portugal), French, Dutch.

A inventare i numeri - Making up Numbers

illustrated by Alessandro Sanna, 32 pages, age 4+

A very fast exchange of quips on the telephone, a simple but fun game: making up numbers which don't exist. Can you illustrate a fable on the phone all made up of puns? You most certainly can: Alessandro Sanna does it by using the numbers as colourful graphic signs, and transforms the figures into faces, cats, blackbirds, people..... it's a must!

Rights sold: Castilian, Portuguese (Brazil), Catalan, Basque.

Uno e Sette - One and Seven

illustrated by Vittoria Facchini, 32 pages, age 5+

This is the story of a child who really is 7 children. Each child lives in a different part of the world with different fathers...

Gianni Rodari was the first writer to tell children about such an important issue as peace. His message is as crisp and modern as ever and the bright illustrations by Vittoria Facchini help making it even livelier.

Rights sold: Castilian (Latin America), Portuguese (Brazil), Greek, Simple Chinese, Chinese Complex.

Il pittore - The Painter

illustrated by Valeria Petrone, 40 pages, age 4+

The main character in this nursery rhyme is a painter who is so poor he pulls his hair out to make his brushes. But what colours can he use, seeing as he cannot buy any paints? He goes to ask to borrow some from the master of each colour, but absolutely no one is willing to give him any. What nursery rhyme is better suited to being illustrated?

Rights sold: Korean, Simple Chinese, Chinese Complex.

L'omino della pioggia - The Little Rain Man

illustrated by Nicoletta Costa, 32 pages, age 4+

Since clouds do not always pour rain, they must have taps. And obviously there must be somebody who turns these taps on and off. His name, of course, is "the little rain man", and his job often gets very tiring...

A poetic and funny story.

Rights sold: Portuguese (Brazil only), Castilian, Greek, Turkish, Basque.

Le favole a rovescio - Tales told Backwards

illustrated by Nicoletta Costa, 32 pages, age 4+

In brief verses, some of the most famous traditional fairy tales are told in an absurd, often hilarious way. Rodari's wit and humour create a fantastic atmosphere, enriched by the upside down character of these tales told backwards, and at the end you're invited to use your own imagination: 'Whatever happened next, it's up to you to figure it out.'

Rights sold: Castilian, Basque.

La guerra delle campane - The War of the Bells

illustrated by Pef, 32 pages, age 5+

Two countries are fighting a long lasting war. It's us against them. Our General plans to build the ultimate gun with the bells taken from the churches. The enemy's General has the same idea. Both Generals think their weapons shall bring war to an end, but how can churches' bells put an end to war?

Rights sold: Japanese.

Il re Mida - King Midas

illustrated by Francesco Altan, 32 pages, age 6+

One of the most famous "Tales on the Phone" is the one about the most famous King in Greek Mythology, who was doomed by a spell to turn everything he touched into gold. But Gianni Rodari's creativity enhances the classical ending with an irreverent surprise....

Grammatica della fantasia The Grammar of Imagination

192 pages

This famous book by Gianni Rodari focuses on how our imagination works in order to take us beyond the wall of a dull scholastic routine and into the fascinating world of creativity. According to Rodari, a word is similar to a stone thrown into a pond: while the latter produces a series of rapidly changing concentric ripples which gently stir the water-lilies as well as a child's paper-boat, the former triggers incredibly intricate chain-reactions involving sounds and images, dreams, memories and - endlessly - other words and analogies...

pages 112,
age 7+

Rights sold: Chinese Simple.

Versi e storie di parole Word Stories and Rhymes

Rodari is fascinated by language tricks, grammar rules and writing mistakes. This book is a sort of amusing grammar, where ironic stories tell us the origin of some words and how they changed through history to come to the present meaning.

pages 72,
age 7+

La gondola fantasma The Ghost Gondola

Set in Venice, this amusing story is based on the magic of Italian carnival masks. There is the son of a caliph who is kidnapped, many famous masks like Pulcinella and Arlecchino and a mysterious 'gondola' (the typical Venetian boat). Misunderstandings, people mistaken for other people, and a lot more make this book irresistibly funny.

Influenced by French surrealism and linguistics, Rodari stressed the importance of conceiving poetry as a playful activity and a means to recover the rhythm and sound of the oral tradition of nursery rhymes, explore the potential of the language and exploit the combinatory and releasing power of words. This is what children's poetry is today, and today at school children play at 'making poetry'.

At a time when schooling was all about factual knowledge, Rodari wrote La grammatica della fantasia (The Grammar of Imagination), a book on the art of making up and writing stories. Rodari was a forerunner of writing techniques such as that of the 'fantastic binomial', of the 'what happened after' and the 'what happened if...', which now play a key role in creative writing and are still employed by teachers and authors of children's books. The relevance of Rodari's works today lies in his poetics of imagination, in his ironic approach to reality and to social and civic issues such as war and peace, emigration, injustice, inequality and liberty.

Thirty five years since his death, Rodari's writing appears to be as powerful and innovative as ever.

For his works and translations (over 50 languages) he received many awards and honours, included the Andersen Prize in 1970, one of the world's most prestigious prizes for children's literature.

He died in Rome in 1980.
